

SEPT. 28 - 29, 2021

MAY 25 - 27, 2022

Creating Inclusive Economies 2021-2022

Building Bridges Between Public, Private & Civil Society Sectors

Breakout Sessions September 28, 2021

Note: All videos prepared in advance for breakout room sessions are supplied in a bilingual format, however, discussions will take place in the language indicated.

Breakout Room 1 - English Changing Demographics

Education to Employment Transitions of Refugee Newcomer Youth in Rural Nova Scotia –
Kenzie MacNeil and Norine Verberg

Community sponsorship and two-way integration arising through refugees resettling in rural Nova Scotia – Norine Verberg and Jordan MacDonald

English as an Additional Language (EAL): Accessibility and the Economic Transitions of Refugees in Rural Nova Scotia - Carrigan Martell and Norine Verberg

FONDATION
CANADIENNE POUR LA
REVITALISATION RURALE
—
CANADIAN
RURAL REVITALIZATION
FOUNDATION

CEDEC

Breakout Room 2 - English

Community and Collaboration

Rural schools under threat: How school boards decide which schools to close - Hannah Main

Filling the Gaps Between Community and University: The Story of a Housing and Homelessness Research Project in Rural Newfoundland and Labrador - Michelle Porter

Community Context and Therapeutic Recreation Programming in Rural Long-Term Care: A Socio-Ecological Examination - Grace Nelson and Kyle Rich

Breakout Room 3 - English

Infrastructure and the Environment

Navigating Rural: Place-Based Transit Solutions for Rural Canada
- Sarah-Patricia Breen, Mark Trueman, Courtney Sutherland, and Laurel Halleran

Exploring Local Economic Development Delivery Models - Sarah Breen and Gaganjeet Singh

Protocol for developing a shuttle service in rural communities - Sarah Krasniuk and Alex Crizzle

Breakout Room 4 - English

Local Economies

Harnessing the power of stories for rural sustainability: Reflections on community-based research on the Great Northern Peninsula of Newfoundland - Brennan Lowery

Embedding Local Capital: Lessons from Community Investment Fund Programs in Canada - Alex Petric and Ryan Gibson

Engaging and ELLEvating Women Entrepreneurs - Mario Clarke and Meltem Kilicaslan

Coming Together and How That Changed Us: The Development of a Social and Economic Development Framework in Fort St. John, B.C. - Marleen Morris

Breakout Room 5 - French

Se donner les moyens de se revitaliser

Développement de forfait aux Îles-de-la-Madeleine, un exemple de partenariats - Line Bouffard

La gouvernance comme processus décisionnel entre les secteurs public, privé et civique d'une communauté locale - Bruno Jean

Faire face aux événements climatiques extrêmes en région périphérique : petit, c'est mieux ? - Geneviève Brisson et Nathalie Lewis

Developing Visitor Packages for the Magdalen Islands: An Example of Partnerships

Governance as a decision-making process between the public, private and civic sectors of a local community

Dealing with Extreme Weather Events in Peripheral Regions: Is Smaller Better?