

SEPT. 28 - 29, 2021

MAY 25 - 27, 2022

Creating Inclusive Economies 2021-2022

Building Bridges Between Public, Private & Civil Society Sectors

Breakout Sessions September 29, 2021

Note: All videos prepared in advance for breakout room sessions are supplied in a bilingual format; however, discussions will take place in the language indicated.

Breakout Room 1 - French Communauté et Collaboration

Promouvoir l'accès à des services adaptés pour les hommes en régions rurales - Camille Bisson-Cauchon

Promoting Access to Services Adapted for Men in Rural Areas

La capacité d'élaboration de politiques en matière d'attraction d'immigrants dans les centres éloignés - Marc Valade

Policy Development Capacity to Attract Immigrants to Remote Regions

Les bases territoriales de l'économie circulaire interrégionale -
Christian Duguay

The Territorial Bases of the Interregional Circular Economy

Breakout Room 2 - English

Community and Collaboration

Steel River's Integrated Consultation and Engagement Approach Complimented by the One-Team Approach and Collective Impact Model - Kristopher Fequet and Candace Robertson Shattler

Learnings from rural communities about the fourth sector economy - Brenda Herchmer

Community Integration of Non-Profit Organizations: A Study Of Nova Scotia's Employment Services Ecosystem - Jordan MacDonald

Tangled Tales, Entangled Ales: Adventures in Sense of Place and the "Recursive Islandness" of Newfoundland Craft Beer - Maggie J. Whitten Henry

British Columbia Social Procurement Initiative: Introduction to BCSPI and Social Procurement - Robert Fisher

Breakout Room 3 - English

Indigeneity and Inclusion

People-Public-Private-Partnership (P4) Model for Enhanced Ownership Opportunities for Indigenous Communities - Brock Henderson and Brandon Gerritsen

Gender and Indigeneity: Impacting Trust in the Social Licence - Tara Howse

Weed, Greed and the Need for Reconciliation - Tracey Harvey

Business Development for Value-added Fishery Products in Misipawistik Cree Nation - Maya Rad-Spice and Melanie O'Gorman

Breakout Room 4 - English Infrastructure and Agriculture

Always in Season: A Toolkit for Local Food Practitioners - Krista Kapitan and Janice Janiec

Perceptions and Paradoxes Around Nova Scotia Agriculture - Karen Foster

Discussing the Digital Divide: The Role(s) of Community in Connectivity - Sarah-Patricia Breen, Ashleigh Weeden, Ishith Nigam, and MaKenna Dubois

Building the Future: Rural Infrastructure and Regional Economic Development - Ashleigh Weeden, Ryan Gibson, Sean Markey, Scott Butler, Karla Uliana, Sarah Breen, Melissa Visser and Jay Maloney

Building Fences: Decoding the Socio-spatial Impacts of Mining in Rural Canadian Resource Communities - Leanna Butters

Breakout Room 5 - English Responses and Resiliency

The Covid-19 Pandemic and Levels of Social Cohesion in Rural Communities: Letter-to-the-Editor Forums as a Window into Community Discord - Clark Banack

Zero-Fee Education for a Resilient, Inclusive Economy in Rural Alberta - Kirstyn Morley, Maria Mayan, Brooks Hanewich, Dana Wagner, the Town of Drayton Valley Education Committee

Rural Entrepreneurship for the English-Speaking Communities of Quebec - Mario Clarke and Yoana Turnin

Collaboration and Consultation: Disrupt the Script - Dana Kaluzny